Market Segmentation

General

- 4.50 The Main Board is segmented through the classification of Main Board primary issuers in either the prime or general segment.
- 4.51 The general segment affords issuers with a Main Board primary listing with different application of certain provisions of the Requirements.
- 4.52 The default position for all Main Board issuers is classification in the prime segment. Only issuers not included in the FTSE/JSE All Share Index are eligible for inclusion in the general segment.

General segment classification: new listing

- 4.53 An applicant issuer may apply for a listing on the general segment.
- 4.54 The JSE will, in its discretion, and in consultation with the JSE Indices Department, determine the likelihood of the applicant being included in FTSE/JSE All Share Index in the near future. The determination will be based on various indicators, such as expected market capitalisation, including any published market capitalisation on a licensed exchange, free float, expected split of shares on the domestic share register and the FTSE/JSE All Share Index exclusion rules.

General segment classification: existing issuers

- 4.55 An application for inclusion in the general segment must be approved by the JSE.
- 4.56 Once approved, an issuer will be included in the general segment from the date of approval of the application.
- 4.57 The issuer must release an announcement once classified to the general segment, which must include the following:
- (a) the effective date; and
 - (b) a summary of the market segmentation applications in terms of 4.62.

Reclassification

- 4.58 An issuer in the general segment may at any time, on application to the JSE, seek re-classification to the prime segment. The proposed effective date of re-classification must be included in the application.
- 4.59 If an issuer in the general segment is included in the FTSE/JSE All Share Index for a period of twelve months in accordance with the FTSE/JSE All Share Index bi-annual reviews, such issuer will no longer be eligible for the general segment. The JSE will reclassify the issuer to the prime segment with a specified effective date, subject to a six month notice period. An issuer may request an earlier effective date.
- 4.60 The issuer must release an announcement once reclassified, including the effective date. The provisions in 4.62 cease to apply on the effective date of reclassification to the prime segment.
- 4.61 An issuer will only be eligible to reapply for the general segment, once it falls outside of the FTSE/JSE All Share Index for a period of at least 12 months in accordance with the FTSE/JSE All Share Index bi-annual reviews.
